YouSendIt Subscriber Base Grows 300 Percent in 2007

New corporate and professional service offerings and expansion in sales drive demand for YouSendIt among business users around the globe

Campbell, CA – November 28, 2007 – YouSendIt, the trusted global leader in digital content delivery, today announced that new online services and key customer acquisitions contributed to a 300 percent increase in revenue and subscriber base since January 2007.

YouSendIt's secure and easy-to-use online service enables businesses and individuals to send important files of any kind, as large as 2 gigabytes each, in a branded environment with recipient authentication, automated content tracking and secure transmission.

"Our corporate and individual customers send, receive and track more than 7 million files every month. The assured delivery of these files is critical to complete their business communication workflows," said YouSendIt CEO Ivan Koon. "YouSendIt enables companies to increase productivity, revenue potential and customer satisfaction by simplifying the tasks to send, receive and store business critical documents across company boundaries."

"YouSendIt eliminates cumbersome FTP transfers, expensive overnight courier services and e-mail attachment storage costs with our secure and easy-to-use services on the Web. Additionally, our plug-ins for a variety of applications including, Adobe Photoshop, Apple Aperture, CorelDRAW and Nuance PaperPort help our customers streamline their workflow and increase productivity."

More than 10,000 companies participated in the beta program of YouSendIt's latest offering, Corporate Suite. With unlimited bandwidth for sending files and centralized user management across organizations, YouSendIt Corporate Suite offers password protection, certified delivery and tracking, and the ability for an entire staff to share a single corporate account. Advanced long term storage options reduce the need for companies to maintain costly e-mail infrastructures while freeing up budgets previously expended on FTP transfers and couriers.

Launched in October, Corporate Suite is proving to be a very popular service throughout a range of business sectors. Organizations that recently adopted YouSendIt Corporate Suite include Kelly Moore, Ritz Camera, City of Los Angeles, Novelis, the world leader in aluminum rolling and Educational Media Services at George Mason University. All are finding extensive value in Corporate Suite's ability to speed communication among disparate locations and personnel.

Newly released YouSendIt Express is a downloadable desktop application that allows users to send multiple files, including ZIP files or folders, directly from their desktop. Files also can be sent by simply dragging-and-dropping them individually into the application. Furthermore, YouSendIt Express has automatic resumability so the file upload process can continue even when there are occasional network issues.

YouSendIt has earned the trust of more than five million registered users from virtually every nation in the world. They use YouSendIt as a critical part of their business communication process, sending more than 30,000 gigabytes of data each day, while saving time, money and valuable resources.
